University receives complaint of conduct that poses an immediate health or safety risk to an individual or the campus community

Title IX Coordinator holds a risk assessment call with appropriate campus leadership to advise Director of Student Conduct in decision

Emergency action is needed

Emergency action is not needed

Director of Student Conduct & Community Standards notifies the affected student in writing

Emergency action related to campus access
- On-campus housing relocation
- Off-campus relocation
- Restrictions from facilities
- Trespassing

Emergency action related to academics
- Immediate temporary suspension from the University
- Hold on student record
- Class schedule modification

Emergency action related to University-sponsored activities
- Suspension from organization or activities
- Prohibited attendance at athletic events
- Limited participation in student groups

Emergency action hearing held within two (2) business days
- Dissolved with no further action
- Dissolved and proceed to formal investigation process
- Sustained or modified pending the conclusion of the formal investigation process

Upon request, emergency action may be reviewed by VPSL
- May be reviewed every ten (10) days

Learn more about emergency action procedures: https://dos.uoregon.edu/sexual-misconduct

Office of the Dean of Students: 541-346-1140
University Housing: 541-346-4222
Title IX Coordinator: 541-346-8136